

Honoring Our Veterans

Noble Warriors

Caleb Moreen

To the veterans who fought
With bravery and heart
With intentions of freedom
Right from the start.

The heirlooms tell
A legacy so great
A story of courage,
A story of fate.

To the forces that fought
And never thought to yield
Spread hope to many
While on the battlefield.

The statue of liberty
Standing so very tall
Like a new sunrise
Gave hope to us all

The fearless officers
Led troops into war
Flew into battle
Like a Bald Eagle's soar..
