

The Fighting Soldier

By: Ellie Mishal

The proud American flag
Swaying through the night
Thirteen stripes, fifty stars
We won't give up the fight

Soldiers dodging bullets
Never admit defeat
Appalling battlefields
Yet still standing on your feet

Soldiers protecting our country
Fighting for our freedom
Selflessly defending us
Whenever we may need them

Purple heart on your chest
We will always remember
On this very special day
The 11th of November
