

In Honor of Our Veterans By Yaakov Ostrovsky

Red, white, and blue
The fighter planes flew

Red is Hardiness,
Blue is Justice,
Purity is White
It is for this
Our soldiers fought throughout the night

You are courageous,
And you are brave
We are grateful
For all the people you've saved

Bloody battles throughout the day
Yet you did not run away
Our flag fluttered above
For the freedom that we love

It is you who we remember
On the 11th of November
When the fight ended
It was so splendid
