Honoring Our Veterans

Honor Veterans

Lev Gradman

Cold, dangerous, muddy nights,
Sleeping on the fields of battle.

Firing in every direction,
Soldiers fighting for our protection.

The American flag gracefully swaying,
Bald eagles peacefully flying.

Some were drafted,
Others bravely volunteered.

Once soldiers,
Now veterans.

Defending their country,
Keeping hope alive for their nation.

Our veterans,
Loved by all.

Grateful for their service,
Thankful for their bravery.

Protecting their country
With all their heart and soul.
