Honoring Our Veterans

The Day the Liberty Bell Rings
Silvia

Someone who risked their lives,
Someone who is fiercely loyal to America
They bravely left their family Someone who keeps their head held high just knowing what they risked for our nation

Someone who battles near and far,
Land and water,
Someone who selflessly fought so that the stars and stripes could still sway,
Someone who fought long days and nights

The day the bald eagle soars further,
The day the flag flies even higher,
The day the Liberty Bell rings,
On November 11
